

If you were invited to spend 5 days with (someone like) the Dalai Lama, would you accept the invitation?

Welcome to The Global Peacemakers Pilgrimage to New Zealand and The Waitaha tribe, an exclusive journey accessible by invitation only... and YOU are invited.

JULY 22nd to July 28th, 2018

For thousands of years, the Waitaha People of New Zealand has sought peace and harmony with humans, animals and plants. While keeping their wisdom and efforts secret in the past, they are now willing to share their way of living and being with the world.

Waitaha elder Te Porohau Ruka Te Korako has joined with The Global Peacemakers.

Peacemakers is a grassroots movement and organization that seeks to energetically change the planet by enhancing the energy level of its inhabitants. We believe that each person, through self-awareness of his or her thoughts, words and deeds, can enhance the energy she or he emits. We believe that if enough people enhance their energy level, even just a small amount, it will change the world. By finding Peace within ourselves, we will change the world energetically, to a vibration of peace, one person at a time.

WAITAHA, Nation of Peace

If life experiences have hurt you, it is because you let it be so. Do not blame others for your experiences. If associates in your lifetime hurt you, do not blame others for these terrible painful experiences. Take time out to write, speak, draw, and even talk your pain to specially selected trees. Share your experiences, with close associates, family, name the people, person who hurt you. Make a list of these people. Share the list with others. The best people to share these experiences with are tall stately trees. For they take all your pain and hurt, and regenerate the sounds into the Universe; then silently the forest comes to help you in your pain and anguish. Yes, the forest is alive. It is alive to pain, and it will help you; it will produce extra special oxygenated air for you to breathe and to relax into while you are talking to the tree or trees.

Itinerary – brief overview (subject to change)

- Day 1 - Arrival to KeriKeri, North Island, New Zealand. Welcoming ceremony and general orientation... and your first awakening/deepening experience! We have the honor to sleep in dreamtime in the sacred space of the Waitaha ancestors.
- Day 2 - We spend the day at the marae (sacred meeting ground) getting to know the way of the Waitaha people, their history, traditions and wisdom... shared by the elders in profound presence of truth, love and peace.
- Day 3 - The land of New Zealand still vibrates with life itself, untouched by the drama of our world. Today's excursion takes us to Waipoua Forest, notable for having two of the largest living sacred kauri trees, Tane Mahuta and Te Matua Ngahere. These trees are known for their ability to take on our pain...releasing us.
- Day 4 – After sharing dreamtime with our Waitaha hosts for a few days, we are ready to go deeper, finding our way home within ourselves. We spend today at the marae, in deep conversation and contemplation.
- Day 5 - Full day excursion to Cape Reinga / Te Rerenga Wairua; the northwesternmost tip of New Zealand. An incredibly special and sacred place for the Waitaha, as well as Maori people. Connection with Spirit is on the agenda.
- Day 6 – Our last full day together at the marae will be molded by the progress we have made as a group, during the week. The day ends with our Closing ceremony and communal celebration.
- Day 7 - Departure day. We leave the marae before noon and head for the airport.

What to expect:

These are the lands where the Dalai Lama has been known to go and recharge his batteries, reconnect, and rest. The Waitaha and Eldest Chief Te Porohau, whom you will meet and learn from, is the counselor and close friend of the Dalai Lama.

An invitation by chief Te Porohau:

'You are welcome to know that for the sessions and the need to walk and talk our land would take up at least a good four to five days, which would give people time to practice and to put together a tool box of our ancient thoughts and teachings along with the listening and talking into a place of no pain, no progress unless totally understood by the group who can demonstrate the God and Goddess like principles of LOVE, PEACE AND TRUTH OF SELF. Of course dear ones it takes years to become a Shaman Tohunga Whatukura and Mareikura. It was presumed to be a bloodline that came from the intermingling of our blood lines with the Gods and Goddesses who visit us every time they need to replenish their own DNA.'

This is a deeply personal quest/pilgrimage or examination/inquiry.

A search for something first and foremost within, but also as an extension outside ourselves.

- Be in DreamTime with the oldest indigenous pre-Maori nation in New Zealand, the Waitaha.
 - Dreamtime is often referred to as a creation myth... but it is so much more than that. We'll have the gift of "sleeping with the Waitaha ancestors"; being connected to and guided by them during our sleep, as well as awake hours – a tremendous honor.
- Ceremonies: throughout centuries humans have used ceremony to connect with deeper aspects of our beings, as well as the Universe / Spirit / God and Life itself.
- Experience sacred Waitaha wisdom and history known as the Water Carriers and PeaceKeepers.
 - The listening and talking into a place of truth and love...a place beyond pain.
 - Demonstrate the principles of LOVE, PEACE AND TRUTH OF SELF & OTHERS.
 - Introduction to the "Do No Harm" philosophy. Learn what it means to live "Everything is allowed" and "Anything you desire is ok, as long as you DO NO HARM."
 - The return to "Normal," to the essence of what you truly are. If you desire to know what it feels like to be "normal" again, this is an opportunity to return to a way of being that was natural as a child... being "totally present" with yourself, others and life itself.
 - Showing how YOU can shift your energy and vibration from inside out.
 - How to settle grievances within ourselves and with others.
 - Welcome HOME; being at home with yourself.
 - Experience connecting with the ancient ancestors and learn that you CAN reconnect with ancestors from a time and land before; it is possible for them to visit & teach us.
- Visit sacred Maori locations and experience their held wisdom and power.
- Enjoy the peace and beauty of the sacred lands of New Zealand.

Who are The Waitaha Nation of Peace:

Very little is known about the oldest and earliest tribal people of New Zealand because they closed their doors in the 1700's during the discovery by European settlers. They were unknown until 1988 and only opened to sharing their wisdom with a few very select groups, starting in 2014.

Their origin begins from the Exodus of Egypt! The ancestors of a "Nation of Waitaha" were the first inhabitants of New Zealand. Three groups of people of different races; two of light complexion and one of dark complexion, who arrived in New Zealand from Egypt to the Pacific. Their oral history says they came from "all four directions" landing on the shores of New Zealand guided by whales. They are a pre-maori / non-maori people who have insisted on living their non-warrior / non-violent ways throughout the centuries.

The Waitaha Nation is a matriarchal nation, known as the PeaceKeepers and Water Carriers of the Earth. This theme is powerful and a core component of their wisdom; teaching how to still the water within each of us...finding Peace within.

Unlike all other nations or tribes of the world, you become Waitaha by your character, not your genetic ancestors. There are Waitaha of many genes (Japanese, New Zealand, USA, etc.), and it is decided based on your values, character, and behavior, which is unique to any other part of the world or nations. Therefore, you cannot identify a Waitaha by their "looks," but, instead, by their character.

Why the Waitaha out of so many other places we could visit?

A visit to a Waitaha marae (sacred meeting ground) is an exclusive and unique opportunity, available only by invitation from the counsel of the Waitaha elders. We are welcomed home...into their home yes, but more importantly, home within ourselves, through the profound wisdom and guidance of sacred energy, true peace and the essence of love and life itself.

This journey invites you to return to “normal,” to the essence of what you truly are, which is only possible by your values, character, decisions, and behavior; not through superior/inferior genes. It is open and available to anyone who desires the journey. Perhaps you, too, can become Waitaha?

Weather:

July is wintertime in New Zealand. Average temperatures are: high 59 °F and low 48 °F.

Arrival & Departure:

Due to time zones, we lose a day when traveling to New Zealand and gain a day as we return. The main airport closest to our destination is Auckland, on the north island of New Zealand; so unless you plan to do your own traveling before or after, Auckland is where you fly into from your home.

Arrival: Please make sure to arrive in KeriKeri, North Island, NZ, no later than July 22nd at 3pm.
If you fly out of the US on Friday evening, you'll arrive in Auckland early Sunday.
Our bus will leave the KeriKeri airport at 4pm on July 22nd for transport to the marae.

Departure: Please arrange your flights out of KeriKeri no earlier than 12pm noon on July 28th.
If you fly out of Auckland on Saturday, most flights will have you arriving in the US on the very same Saturday, giving you Sunday to recuperate before your week begins.

Can I come earlier and/or stay longer:

Absolutely! There is a local Marriott that is beautiful right on the ocean, which you can stay if you come early or desire to stay after. The rest of New Zealand is gorgeous and available be explored as well. We will make suggestions to help you with this, if you wish; but it will not be officially part of the journey.

Join the Global Peacemakers and the Waitaha Nation of Peace.

We look forward to sharing dreamtime & profound transformation with you this July.
